SPACE to think, walk and relax come with the location of three rental properties on the market this week.

The first is Chilson Hill Cottage on the Cornbury Park estate. Home to the Rotherwick family, Cornbury includes 1,700 acres of ancient forest and deer parks and residents have access to much of it.

On the hillside above the village, Chilson Hill Cottage has three bedrooms and a large garden and is available to let, immediately, at £1,400 per month.

Two other three-bedroom houses close to parks, beauty spots or open spaces, are in Oxford.

The first is in Plater Drive on the Waterside development, which is a short walk from Port Meadow.

There is a kitchen and living room with feature fireplace and double doors to the patio.

All the bedrooms are doubles and there are two bathrooms.

Agents describe the back garden as "low maintenance" and pets will be considered.

The house has off-road parking, wooden floors and is also close to Jericho and the city centre. It is available to let, unfurnished, at £1,600 per month, through Finders Keepers.

Finally, a recently renovated family house in Northampton Road off Abingdon Road, is within walking distance of Hinksey Park.

It is also close to University College sports ground and the River Thames towpath.

There are three double bedrooms, a bathroom, new kitchen and two reception rooms. The house has wooden floors, front and back gardens and off-street parking for a car.

It is available to let, furnished or unfurnished, at £1,495 a month, via Finders Keepers.
