Scale: Blenheim View in Long Hanborough

Three family homes are in idyllic village settings. Swerbrook in Swerford, near Hook Norton, is set in two-and-a-half acres of landscaped grounds with electronically-controlled gates and land running down to the River Swere.

The Grade-II listed house includes three or four bedrooms, two bathrooms, a sitting room, dining hall, study/office, kitchen and living area with large, feature window. It is available, furnished or unfurnished, for £4,250 per month. A thatched guest cottage may also be available by separate negotiation to provide extra living space.

Another period property is a country cottage in Sandford St Martin.

rooms, a kitchen, three bedrooms, bathroom and two en-suite showers.

Other highlights are off-road parking, a garage and storage shed.

It is available, unfurnished, for £1,450 per month.

Finally, a five-bedroom detached family house in Long Hanborough has far-reaching views over surrounding countryside.

It includes a drawing room, family room, open-plan kitchen/dining room and four of the bedrooms are en-suite.

There is a double garage and landscaped garden and it is available, unfurnished, for £3,500 per month.
