Houses should suit golf-loving tenants to a tee

Modern: The house in St Christopher's Place, Temple Cowley

Glamour: The converted barn at the Garford property

By Gill Oliver

Golf lovers may want to look at two homes which are within easy reach of golf courses.

The first, a glamorous barn conversion in Garford with exposed beams, vaulted ceilings and a wood burner, is a five-minute drive from Frilford Heath golf club.

The family home includes four double bedrooms and is also well placed for the Abingdon Preparatory and Joscas School, Millets Farm, Harwell, Abingdon and Didcot train station. It is available to let, unfurnished, at £2,500 per month.

The second is a modern mid-terraced town house in a no-through road, within easy reach of Southfield Golf Course.

The property, in St Christopher's Place, Temple Cowley, has a living room, conservatory, two double bedrooms and an en-suite shower room.

There is also an en-suite bathroom, back garden and parking space at the front. It has views to the city and is handy for the Oxford Business Park, city centre and ring road. It is available, furnished, from September 10, at £1,200 per month.
