A GRAND house on the Blenheim Palace estate is surrounded by the stunning grounds of Oxfordshire's most popular tourist attraction.

Agents describe the property in Woodstock as having magnificent views of the grounds

It is approached by a grand, gravel driveway with double gates and has plenty of character features. These include two open fires with stone hearths, many large bay/sash windows and flagstone flooring in the kitchen.

Living space on the ground floor includes a dining room, a sitting room, play room, kitchen/breakfast room and extra reception room.

There is also a laundry room and a cellar.

The property might suit a family, as there are five bedrooms with a dressing room off the main bedroom and four bathrooms.

The gardens are mainly lawn with trees and a gravel patio.

Despite its rural setting on the Blenheim estate, the property is within easy reach of Woodstock's many independent shops, restaurants and cafes.

It is available to let, unfurnished, at £7,500 a month and agents say pets will be considered.
