The Summer House in Boars Hill

Quirky two-bed house is ideal as secluded retreat

THE Summer House is a quirky two-bedroom house in Boars Hill.

Described as having a “picture-perfect outlook and a wonderful mix of modern living and quiet seclusion” the single-storey property has an extremely contemporary design.

The kitchen has granite worktops and an open-plan living room with giant, full-length glass doors on two sides to take advantage of views over surrounding fields.

There is one bathroom and a study/guest room.

The property has underfloor gas heating throughout, solar panels, driveway parking and there is a gardener to maintain the grounds included in the rental fee.

Agents say the property would be “ideal for a couple looking for a secluded retreat”.

The Summer House is available to let, furnished, at £1,375 per month through Finders Keepers’ Abingdon office on 01235 535454.

The second property is 17 Orchard Square, a contemporary conversion on the former RAF Bicester base.

The Garden Quarter development in Upper Heyford has been redeveloped by award-winning heritage restoration specialists City & Country.

The site includes a mix of new-build homes with original properties.

Number 17 Orchard Square includes two bedrooms and one bathroom and the master bedroom also has an en-suite shower room.

It comes with allocated parking for two cars and there is easy access to Bicester North train station for a quick commute to London.

Number 17 Orchard Square is available to let, unfurnished, at £1,400 per month through Finders Keepers’ Bicester office on 01869 329530.
