Terraced houses with easy access to city centre

Above and right: Mary Price Close in Headington

Victorian villa: The three-storey house in Iffley Road, with its bathroom, below

By Gill Oliver

Two properties with easy access to the city are both three-storey, mid-terrace town houses.

Both have four bedrooms and good-sized gardens but are from different centuries.

The first, in Headington, is contemporary and has three bathrooms and off-street parking for two cars.

The other, in Iffley Road, is a traditional Victorian villa with original fireplaces and other character features.

The house in Mary Price Close in Headington has two double bedrooms, two singles and three bathrooms.

The first-floor living room has a balcony and there is also a breakfast/dining room with doors to the garden. It is available to let, furnished or unfurnished, at £1,950 per month.

The property in Iffley Road has four double bedrooms and a family bathroom with freestanding bath and walk-in
