SUPPLY of rental property across the country is the lowest since records began, according to new research.

The latest private sector rental report from the Association of Residential Letting Agents also found demand rose in January.

Two rental apartments now in the market in Oxfordshire – one in Oxford city centre and the other in Abingdon – both have river views.

The first is a two-bedroom, modern duplex in Rickyard Close, off Rewley Road. Both bedrooms are doubles and each has an en suite bathroom, open-plan kitchen/dining room and a 30-foot living room with doors opening to a private garden.

The apartment has been recently redecorated and agents Finders Keepers say it is furnished "to a very high standard".

It comes with one allocated off-street parking space and is a short walk to the rail station, Said Business School and bars and restaurants of Jericho and the city centre.

It is available to let, furnished, at £1,595 per month through Finders Keepers. For more information, call 01865 297999 or visit www.finders.co.uk.

Stunning views out over the River Ock and River Thames are the highlight of a first-floor flat in St Helen's Wharf in Abingdon.

The property, which has character features such as exposed beams, has recently been refurbished with a new kitchen and bathroom.

There is a double bedroom with en-suite bathroom, open-plan living/dining room and separate kitchen.

The apartment also comes with one parking space and is a short walk away from Abingdon town centre.

It is available to let, unfurnished, at £895 per month through Finders Keepers.
