

LETTINGS

Thursday, May 12, 2016

This family home in Cassington is surrounded by fantastic landscaped gardens

This house in Larkins Lane, Oxford, is set in four acres of grounds

Gorgeous gardens are focus point of stunning homes

By Gill Oliver
gill.oliver@nqa.com

AS OXFORDSHIRE residents bask in long-overdue sunshine, houses with great gardens are back in fashion.

And with weather experts predicting a warmer-than-average summer, attractive outdoor space could prove a trump card for landlords wishing to attract the best tenants.

Two properties fitting this description are available to let through Oxford-based agents Finders Keepers.

The first is a family home in West Oxfordshire which comes with extensive outside space.

The house, in Cassington, is surrounded by fantastic landscaped gardens with what agents describe as "al-fresco dining areas perfect for entertaining throughout the summer".

It is also packed with period features such as high ceilings, window shutters, a sweeping staircase, feature fireplaces and wooden floors.

There are four good-sized living rooms plus a separate dining room and a kitchen.

The property has five double bedrooms, two with en suite bathrooms and a family bathroom. There is also off-street parking for several cars.

It is available to let, unfurnished from the end of next month at £4,500 a month through Finders Keepers.

For more information, call 01865 311011 or visit www.finders.co.uk.

The second property is a four-bedroom home in Headington which comes with four acres of landscaped grounds, including a sun terrace, lawns and meadows, all of which are maintained as part of the tenancy agreement.

The period property in Larkins Lane has high ceilings, feature fireplaces, underfloor heating and stripped wood floors throughout.

On the ground floor is a 28ft by 18ft living/dining room, 22ft-long library/music room, a study/cinema room, fourth reception plus a kitchen/breakfast room with French doors to the garden.

All bedrooms are doubles, with the master measuring 22ft by 14ft.

There are also two bathrooms and two en suite shower rooms.

It is available to let unfurnished from mid-August, at £5,500 a month through Finders Keepers.

For more information, call 01865 307207 or visit www.finders.co.uk.