GOOD quality family homes are often in greater demand now, as families rush to settle in before the start of a new school year.

Agents Finders Keepers has a selection of properties, with prices ranging from £1,750 to just under £2,500 per month.

A four-bedroom period house in Elmthorpe Road, Wolvercote, is within a short walk of Port Meadow and Wolvercote Common. There is also a reception room, living room and extended kitchen/dining room plus a family room with a wood burner and bi-fold doors to a landscaped garden.

It is available to rent at £2,450 per month.

Linkside Avenue, in North Oxford, is always popular with families and is also close to Cutteslowe Park and within easy reach of Oxford Parkway station.

One semi-detached house there that is available to rent has a living room, dining room and separate kitchen plus three doubles and one single bedroom.

There is a good-sized back garden and off-street parking.

It is available to rent at £1,750.

Meanwhile, a home in one of North Oxford's most sought-after developments is within walking distance of Summertown and Jericho and a short cycle ride to the city centre and Oxford Parkway.

The four-bedroom property in Merton Court, Waterside, has
