

PICTURE NEWS

Walking to support fight against heart disease

Three employees at Finders Keepers letting agents in Banbury will put their best foot forward and walk 34 miles for the British Heart Foundation. Laura Fiddes-Baron, Marc Fox and Emma Read will set off on their two-day journey on Saturday, and will walk from Chipping Campden to Winchcombe in Gloucestershire before heading to Cheltenham. The lettings agent has chosen the British Heart Foundation as their charity of the year and Mrs Fiddes-Baron said: "We are all really excited about the walk. The charity actually raises funds for stroke victims and as my father suffered one last year I wanted to do something to help." Visit www.justgiving.com/finderskeeperscharitycotswoldhike